January 14, 2021

To All Prospective Respondents:

The purpose of this addendum is to provide additional information for prospective respondents regarding a materials spec sheet.

All other terms and conditions of the RFP remain the same.

The unit work descriptions are included in the spreadsheet and that HACH is working on a materials specifications list which will describe the materials HACH requires (ie paint type and color, flooring type, etc) and their cost on a per unit basis. That material sheet will be provided at or before the walk through for calculation of accurate pricing.
