ESL Levels

Level 1: ESL 015 - Beginning English I

This course focuses on fundamental grammar, common vocabulary, introduction to reading skills in English, and conversation practice.

Level 2: ESL 025 - Beginning English II

This course continues and reinforces content and skills from ESL 015. Students will focus on four skills in various segments- fundamental grammar, common vocabulary, reading comprehension, and conversation practice.

Level 3: ESL 035 - Intermediate English I

This course is designed to develop students' grammar, as well as introduce students to paragraph writing. Additionally, students will be introduced to giving speeches and presentations, as well as advancing reading comprehension and vocabulary.

Level 4: ESL 045 - Intermediate English II

This course builds on the foundation of the previous three levels. It is designed to help students refine their grammar and build effective communication skills. Students will also continue reading more complex texts as well as building speaking and oral presentation skills. Students will move beyond writing at the paragraph level into longer compositions.
